Client Spotlight

"Hello, my name is Austin Price and I am nine years old. I live in Arden, N.C. with my great family. I'm a very busy fellow, I'm learning to ride a bike, I really like my iPad, being outside, swimming, and my friend Ali.

Because of my developmental disabilities I get to work with Philip. My family and I

“My name is Juan Mendoza and I am pleased to introduce myself. I have over twenty years of experience in working with the Intellectual/ Developmental Disability population. I currently maintain all the necessary certifications to provide direct care services to individuals with developmental disabilities.

I provided an AFL residency at my home for over six years and enjoyed it thoroughly. I currently work as a direct care worker in one of the mountain area residential facilities.

I am flexible, I get along with all people and I have an easy going demeanor. The ability to deal effectively with difficult situations has always been a strong point in my repertoire. I have a strong desire to give, and I want to do my most in providing genuine and positive care to the people I serve.”

really appreciate the fun and learning that he brings into my life. I have made a lot of progress learning new skills over the last year working with Phillip.

I also go to Glenn Arden School and I am going to be in the fourth grade next year.

Next summer, July 2015, my family and I are hosting the gathering of the children and their families who have the same syndrome that I have, Koolen De Vries Syndrome. There are only 260 children in the world that have been diagnosed with this syndrome.”
